

Cuidado: Brasília vai feder de novo

Em novembro de 1978, mais exatamente no dia 20, Brasília inteira estava com o dedo no nariz perguntando: "O lago apodreceu?". Ninguém sabia realmente o que estava acontecendo, mas era um mau cheiro tão grande, principalmente nas proximidades da ponte Costa e Silva, no Lago Sul, que algumas pessoas pensaram até que fosse algum cadáver em putrefação. O restaurante Gaf, no Centro Comercial Gilberto Salomão, foi obrigado a fechar as portas porque ninguém conseguia ficar no local. A noite, quando o odor aumentava, os moradores do Lago não conseguiam dormir, tinham ânsias de vômito e alguns tiveram que deixar suas casas por alguns dias.

Brasília fede. Essa era a manchete que o CORREIO BRAZILIENSE estampou na primeira página do dia 23 de novembro de 1978, e que poderá ser repetida dentro de alguns meses, como alertou, anteontem, o superintendente da Caesb, João Carlos de Siqueira Filho. Mas, dessa vez, o brasiliense terá mesmo que apertar o dedo no nariz, porque, levando-se em conta que de 1978 até agora, praticamente nada foi feito para conter a poluição do lago — que só tem agravado —, o mau cheiro irá deixar Brasília inabitável.

O lago Paranoá nunca deixou de despendar mau cheiro e causar incômodo aos habitantes de áreas mais próximas; mas naquele ano atingiu grau insuportável, que o próprio governador Elmo Farias resolveu dar uma explicação oficial para o problema. Ele atribuiu o fenômeno à estiagem que fez o lago baixar muito
